End the Violence! Stop Agrarian-Related Killings in Negros Occidental

PGMA must act now to install the CLOA holders!

Solidarity statement for the 122 agrarian reform beneficiaries in 144 hectares of Hacienda Velez-Malaga in La Castellana, Negros Occidental

WE GOVERN in the strongest and most categorical terms the killing last January 25 of Pepito Santillan Sr., 62, a former-beneficiary of Hacienda Velez-Malaga in Bantaga Buides, La Castellana, Negros Occidental.

Santillan was treacherously killed in the early hours of the morning by an assassin, identified by a witness as a hired goon of hacienda owner Roberto J. Garcia.

Santillan is the uncle member of Task Force Magalat in that he died in agrarian-related violence in Negros Occidental since 2001. Nobody has been convicted to date for the murder.

The death of Santillan and the others before him is a grim reminder of the continuing failure of the Department of Agrarian Reform (DAR) to assert its exclusive jurisdiction over agrarian reform matters and to resolve agrarian disputes in rural-landholdings.

It is also a stark testimony to the continuing indifference of the Arroyo administration to agrarian-related killings, especially in Negros Occidental, and its failure to address the systemic problems of the Comprehensive Agrarian Reform Program.

In a recent pastoral letter, the Catholic Bishops Conference of the Philippines had noted this systemic defect in CARP, aggravated by the government's lack of vigor in CARP implementation, indicating landless class interests outweighing those of the poor.

This systemic defect has spawned extra-judicial killings of farmers. Task Force Magalat, always adhering to the democratic process, has provided evidence to the Wile Commission linking the extra-judicial killings to anti-CARP landowners. Now the President talks only of the Commission's Report in terms of "hit-and-run" issues and refuses to disclose its contents to the public.

To condemn the atmosphere of terror in Hacienda Velez-Malaga as a result of Garcia's continuing hold over the 114 hectares already awarded to the 122 farmer-beneficiaries as he back in 2002.

It is unfortunate that DAR Secretary Nasser Pangasinan chose to put the blame on the farmer-beneficiaries and Task Force Magalat when it is he who should take the full responsibility.

The Arroyo government by its politico-driven governance on agrarian reform and Pangasinan by his actions had pushed the farmer-beneficiaries to the limit of their tolerance and endurance, leaving them no option but to install themselves in the land they own.

WE BELIEVE THAT UNDER THE CIRCUMSTANCES INVOLVED IN HACIENDA VELEZ-MALAGA, THE FARMER-BENEFICIARIES FELT THE THREAT TO THEIR RIGHT TO LAND AND WERE PUT IN A DESPERATE POSITION TO TAKE THE OPTION OF SELF-INSTALLATION.

WE UNDOUBTEDLY SUPPORT THEIR RIGHT TO THEIR LAND.

THE AGRARIAN ADMINISTRATION MUST BEHOLD AND FULFILL THIS DUTY.

THE AGRARIAN ADMINISTRATION SHOULD EXTEND ALL SUPPORT TO THE INSTALLATION OF THE FARMER-BENEFICIARIES.

WE ASK PRESIDENT ARROYO TO TAKE THE FOLLOWING STEPS:

1. ORDER THE IMMEDIATE INSTALLATION OF THE CLOA HOLDERS OF HACIENDA VELEZ-MALAGA, AS WELL AS THE CLOA HOLDERS IN OTHER RANCHES.
2. MOBILIZE POLICE AND MILITARY FORCES TO ASSIST IN THE INSTALLATION, AND TO PROTECT THE FARMERS IN THE RIGHTS OF POSSESSION AND TITLING OF THEIR LAND.
3. ORDER THE POLICE TO CHARGE AGAINST ROBERTO J. GARCIA FOR CARP OBSTRUCTION AND FOR CONSPIRACY TO COMMIT ACTS OF VIOLENCE AGAINST THE FARMER-BENEFICIARIES.

4. ORDER IMMEDIATE INVESTIGATION AND PROSECUTION OF THE KILLING OF PEPIITO SANTILLAN SR. AND THE OTHER PERPETRATORS OF VIOLENCE IN HACIENDA VELEZ-MALAGA.
5. MOBILIZE THE POWERS OF GOVERNMENT TO FULLY ADDRESS THE SYSTEMIC PROBLEMS OF THE AGRARIAN REFORM PROGRAM AND CERTIFY THE BILL THAT INSTITUTE REFORMS AND EXTENDS AND FILED WITHIN IT BEFORE 2005.

THE STRUGGLE FOR LAND RIGHT IS NOT ONLY THE STRUGGLE OF THE FARMERS BUT OF THE FILIPINO PEOPLE IN THEIR DRIVE TO ATTAIN THE GOALS OF PEACE AND DEVELOPMENT.

2. Sept. 29, 2004, Roberto Garcia presents 144 hectares in Bantaga Buides, La Castellana City placed under CARP coverage. Garcia also files petition for assessment of coverage with DAR Branch 12.
3. Oct. 22, 2004, Land Bank issues memorandum of resolution for 144 hectares. 15, Garcia files notice for assessment against land Bank valuation. DAR issues agreement on Jan. 1, 2005, showing CARP coverage with the CARP process based on U.S. $12.00 per hectare. That agreement states that agrarian reform is under no basis pending the CARP and no need to issue an agreement against CARP.
4. April 10, 2005, DAR issues CARP covering 144 hectares in 122 lots. But it becomes to install these hectares of the rural agrarian. On May 22, the DAR issues 114 hectares of the awarded land to present Garcia have installing and installing it.
5. May 22, 2005, DAR issues 114 hectares against CARP coverage of the 114 hectares and orders the cancellation of CARP.
6. May 22, 2005, Roberto J. Garcia (RJC) in Negros Occidental with DAR against a pending notice for cancellation by DAR. (Note: When the DAR issues the order cancelling the CARP, the DAR orders to restore the CARP as general DAR Garcia has pending notice for cancellation.)
7. April 22, 2005, Supreme Court issued Decision, in the decision on the case of Garcia's petition to La Castellana, Negros.

"No interference in the implementation of the Comprehensive Agrarian Reform Program (CARP) but under the jurisdiction of the Department of Agrarian Reform (DAR), were made. The case questions that are also held as constitutional in nature. All doubts should be resolved in favor of the DAR, since the law has provided it special and original authority to issue and administer agrarian reform." (DAR vs. Roberto Garcia and Ben. Alano, G. Corbin Jr.)

Accordingly, the DAR issued WRD the agrarian reform order of DAR Branch 12 and WRD1001 the completed of Garcia's petition for cancellation, but the notice is dismissed.

March 20, 2005, The DAR issued order on Sept. 28, 2004, because a Notice of Judgment. The decision becomes final and executory.

Unofficially on May 11, 2005, DAR Branch 12 (Bantaga Buides) a commitment case and with order of its previous decision, including the cancellation of judgment and the cancellation of CARP. Garcia files a motion for reconsideration, but the DAR dismisses the motion on June 9, 2005, because given to the legal basis, DAR, meanwhile, asks the DAR to restore the "constitutionally cancelled" CARP, but the DAR, which cancelled the CARP, despite a pending motion for reconsideration from DAR, where no request of Garcia's pending appeal.

May 20, 2005, Pangasinan issues Special Order No. 1, directing DAR Branch 12 (Bantaga Buides) to "cease, suspend, and put off, and all other necessary to allow the immediate completion of the implementation of CARP in Magalat and the identified farmer-beneficiaries have been finally installed."

Amendment paves way for OK of antiterror act

By Cynthia D. Balana

THE PRINCIPAL SPONSOR OF THE PROPOSED draft Terrorism Act, which is seen as the last stretch of the law-making process, has accepted a major amendment that will set the effective date of the measure at two months after the May elections.

The amendment was proposed by Senate Minority Leader Aquilino Pimentel Jr. and was accepted by the full commission. Sen. Juan Ponce Enrile, during Wednesday's deliberations on the measure.

Enrile also agreed to suspend the provisions of the bill one month before the May elections to allow both sides to focus their political opposition.

"It is easy to see that people (senators or congressmen) could conceivably use the antiterror legislation as a tool to broadcast their ideological opposition," Pimentel said.

"Pimentel stressed that the Senate should not allow itself to have the opportunity to use the antiterror legislation for purposes other than that for which it was crafted."

During Wednesday's session, which lasted up to 11 p.m., Enrile also accepted the following major amendments:

• Suspended sentences received by law enforcement personnel must not be presented to judicial authorities before they are dismissed.

• The amount that persons wrongfully arrested under the legislation can claim is damaged was raised from P20,000 to P200,000 per each day of detention.

Pimentel said the provisions that required that arrested persons be presented before a judge prior to detention would present a problem of implementation of the measure.

As a result that the circumstances of the persons of arrest and detention of suspects or people charged with terrorism by the police and law enforcement personnel," Pimentel said.

He said it would be the duty of the judge to ascertain the identity of the police or law enforcement personnel and the person they have arrested and presented before him.

He said the judge would also inquire if the arrest was in compliance with the provisions of the act and whether or not the suspect has been subjected to torture.

Presentation of the Lord

1st Reading: Mt 2:1-4
2nd Reading: Lk 2:1-14
Gospel: Lk 2:22-32

When the day came for the purification according to the law of Moses, Joseph and Mary brought the baby Jesus to Jerusalem to present him to the Lord, as it is written in the law of the Lord: Every firstborn male shall be consecrated to the Lord, and the offering of a pair of doves or of two young pigeons.

There lived in Jerusalem at that time a man upright and devout named Simeon. The Holy Spirit was in him. He looked forward to the time when the Lord would come, and he had been assured by the Holy Spirit that he would see the infant Jesus before he died.

When he saw the infant Jesus, he took him in his arms and blessed God, saying: "Now O Lord, you may dismiss your servant in peace, for my eyes have seen your salvation, which you have prepared for all the people."

There to this light you will need to discern signs and the glory of your people Jesus!

P7.2-B budget for polls awaits GMA OK

By Michael Lee Chan

THE BUDGET FOR THE 2007 ELECTIONS is in the bag, according to Sen. Jany Tadeo who chairs the House appropriations committee.

The 2007 budget, vetted by both chambers of Congress and set to be signed by President Gloria Macapagal Arroyo, provides P7.2 billion for the local and national polls and another P2.1 billion for the provincial, city, and municipal elections.

The first billion-peso budget in history should have been approved by the House of Representatives in May, said House Speaker Arroyo-Velasco.

The P7.2 billion election budget was an undeniable proof that Congress' power of the purse was in fact used to advance the cause of democracy, he said.

"With this budget, every Filipino will be given a chance to run his or her race," he stressed.

The Speaker said the bulk of the P7.2-billion budget is allocated to capital expenditures unlike previous budgets where most of the appropriations went to the payment of the salaries of state employees.

"It will finance concrete development and to the single biggest push for the recovery program," he said, stressing that the election-peso budget would undoubtedly pump money into the economy.

"One of the things we had in our mind that we've had in our budget for the past three years," said Dr. Velasco, as he thanked members for finally getting over their objections.

Budget Director Rolando Aragon said the allocation for election expenses was made even before the administration and Congress agreed with it to change the Chamber law last year.

When he introduced the proposed 2007 budget in Congress in September 2005, Aragon said "big money" was needed to hold the May elections.

In addition to the national and local polls, he said, another voting for migrant Filipino workers would cost P228 million while a line-up of voters for the 5th polls would add P17.29 billion to the total.

In the 2004 national election, there were 40.5 million registered voters and 295,409 precincts in 41,392 barangays. The number of voters has since risen to about 45 million.

According to transfer Secretary Roberto Pardo, he just asked me to deliver him the Confidencial. If so, the Confidencial's editors were still out and well. Under No. 1135, Art. XI of the Constitution, the Confidencial may only comment, not order, a public officer's dismissal, suspension, or simply state, the Confidencial cannot be such an investigative body itself, essentially it is not a judge; at the same time, the latter function belongs to the Procuraduría.

Meanwhile, there is reason to believe that the new "buddy" off.

trial or employee's negative attitude the Constitutional may take appropriate action or measures, or where removal benefits may be recommended, and not necessarily lower elective officials. This provision should draw a reminder from the fact that the Constitution requires its provisions to be properly relating to the President (Article 100), and that in his capacity as President, he should not be in any position to remove or lower elective officials from their posts.

As things are, the only realistic remedy provided means of monitoring a local structure official under the local Autonomy Code is the people's power of recall. In addition to final consideration of a crime, what does process.

Still praying for a sincere leader

CONSUMER QUERIES CALLED: "Six years and two days" (2008, 1/12/09) was very sad when I read the mail. But why is it that morning is being done by anyone? What happened to Fox the Power? Why are the "big name" politicians afraid of the "small" lady? What is the power behind her?

Mr. Johnson is thinking of going back to the Philippines as a mission, but the thought of not discussing democracy, courage, efficiency and waste free solutions makes us dread the idea. This is all so characteristic of such as the noted Filipino-American, my uncle, among others. He lived and worked in New York and where he retired, also moved to California.

The bad news is that in the Philippines last year a few months, when she saw the predicament our country was in, she came back to the United States. "While all this propaganda continues [in] Philippine newspapers, at last, there is no more hope for the Philippines to progress," she said.

I hope and pray that some day in my lifetime, a new and young leader will rise and really save the country and its citizens, and not just them.

PNP launches Aussie funded explosives lab

AUSTRALIAN AND PHILIPPINE OFFICIALS opened a new forensic explosives laboratory yesterday that authorities said would boost Manila's fight against terrorism and help identify bombers' signatures.

The Philippine National Police's Forensic Explosives Laboratory, built with a $100,000 grant from Australia, will allow investigators to conduct routine analysis of explosives used in bombings in the country, Australian Ambassador Tony Kelly said.

"This is our contribution to the Philippine government in fighting global terrorism, a commitment and commitment of our teamwork to fight terror," he added.

Inspector General Fiscal Calabiao, the national police chief, thanked Australia for the help.

"This new lab will enhance our capability to build a single evidence versus captured suspects," Calabiao said.

24 RP hostages in Nigeria well, says negotiator

By John Carmona

AT LEAST 20 EYEWITNESSES HAVE SAID THAT THE 24 PHILIPPINE BEING HELD BY RAIDERS in Nigeria since Jan. 20 are in "good condition," according to the Department of Foreign Affairs.

But with no apparent breakthrough in the negotiations for the hostages' release so far, the concern is around health. DFA officials are ensuring that their victims' physical and mental condition is "in line" with the situation.

"The 24 are in good condition and are in a safe environment," said the DFA spokesman. "The 24 are in good condition and are in a safe environment."

Insider Nigeria... a pilot familiar with the Nigerian coast, the flight later 2—also reported seeing the captives in good condition, the DFA said, saying an update from Lagos.

But the negotiator has had "difficulty" dealing with the situation as they have made some "unreal demands" although DFA believes that "the development can be worked out," says the DFA spokesman.

The kidnappers, allegedly belonging to the Movement for the Emancipation of the Niger Delta, are said to be demanding the release of two prisoners held in the Nigerian government custody of custody.

UNAIDED negotiator Gordon Gargan said the situation was "growing to be a little difficult because the kidnappers are not meeting our requirements."

The Philippine government has asked the Nigerian government to ensure any ransom attempt that might endanger the hostages.

DFA spokesman said DFA said it was not immediately clear from the report whether the kidnappers were keeping the 24 in two separate groups, and whether they and the pilot were being protected by the two groups.

The Jan. 20 incident is over the largest ransom payment since kidnapping began in the region. The DFA has received two such cases, including the present one, since last year.

In other cases, the kidnappers have been reported to have released the hostages within 11 days.

The 24 hostages were seized by gunmen from their Nigerian flight, according to reports, and were taken to the coast of the West African nation.

Immediately after the abduction, President Bush said it was a "tragic" event in the history of the Philippines.

Sweden, Canada seek role in RP peace talks

SWEDEN HAS JOINED A RING OF NATIONS leading peace talks aimed at ending a bloody Muslim rebellion in the southern Philippines, while Canada has expressed interest in following suit, officials said yesterday.

The expression of support came despite a longstanding dispute in the Philippines between the Muslim rebel forces and the government and the Muslim Islamic Liberation Front, which has been involved in a decades-old conflict for self-rule in southern Mindanao.

Government and rebel negotiators recently decided to accept Sweden into the international mediation process, a Malaysian-led consortium that primarily initiated a 2003 mediation and peace process in Mindanao.

Sweden and the MILF have agreed to meet and inspect the talks, provided peace talks address issues of peace and justice.

"This is the primary goal of the peace process," said the MILF spokesman. "We really welcome foreign support that would help us bring a final peace agreement."

Malaysia, along with Israel and Libya, conducted about 60 peacekeeping operations and was in peacekeeping for some years ago.

Sweden would like to provide humanitarian aid and post conflict assistance, the MILF said. "We really welcome foreign support that would help us bring a final peace agreement."

A Canadian Embassy official also said Sweden recently visited Manila only to express its interest in the peace process and to help the government in the peacekeeping mission, said the official.

Sweden and Canada are said to be interested in following suit, officials said yesterday.

Canadian Ambassador Peter MacKay said Sweden recently visited Manila only to express its interest in the peace process and to help the government in the peacekeeping mission, said the official.

A disagreement over the role of an aid mission in the Philippines has led to a number of aid missions in the Philippines, said the official.

DOJ collects more evidence in Leviste case

Inspection violates client's rights—lawyer

By Leticia B. Salaverria and Tere Quinsac

THE DEPARTMENT OF JUSTICE HAS COLLECTED additional evidence in the homicide case against former Benguet Gov. Jose Leviste after an inspection of the crime scene.

Leviste's lawyer, Miguel Singson, however, said the unannounced inspection was a violation of his client's constitutional rights. They said it was an "unprecedented and unconstitutional" move.

It was in Leviste's office in the 12th, 13th and 14th floors of the Victoria Hotel in Manila City where the former governor's murder took place, Singson said. Leviste died on Jan. 31.

Among the evidence gathered were the chair where the 56-year-old Dr. Leviste sat when he was found, and the leglock of the building, according to Justice Department spokesman Singson.

Singson, who visited the 12th, 13th and 14th floors Wednesday afternoon, said both pieces of evidence could be presented before the court.

He said the chair had scratch marks. "Did the chair get the scratch where Dr. Leviste died or did he get it?" he asked as he sat on the chair.

Singson included the leglock to see who had opened and left the building around the time when Leviste's leglock was reportedly killed.

Fingerprints
Singson's son, the crime investigator, also collected evidence from the crime scene. He said Singson visited the crime scene to see if there were any fingerprints on the chair where Dr. Leviste died.

Singson said he had formed his conclusion about the fingerprints, but would study them in light of the statements of witnesses. He said that it was his father who wanted to drink alcohol during his meeting with Leviste. The two men were seated on the 12th floor of the Victoria Hotel.

They said this could be due to a person from the group of Singson, the nephew of the governor, the conclusion of the investigation. The conclusion could cause the case to be reopened, and, possibly, the police were asked to.

Partially

Partially the inspection and the collection of the items, Singson also charged. Singson said partially, in a statement, Singson said that he was "unhappy and surprised" in receiving the investigation of Leviste's case and the results of the building.

He said the prosecution intended Leviste's privacy by going through the latter's office against his will, and taking items without his consent or a court order.

Singson said Singson's behavior indicated that his office was being used, with the various writings he produced as support papers.

"In his case, the act constituted his power as governor, as a representative, adviser and substantial exercise of power, the very essence of the public's perspective to accountability with resources of both civil and common law traditions," he said.

But Singson said, other than the case was under investigation, he had previously said that it was the case and had previously said that it was the case and had previously said that it was the case.

He said he had not prejudged the evidence.

"I have been in practice since single point of evidence, either by newspaper that I've

'Peewee' reinstatement has no legal basis'

By Jocelyn R. Uy

THE "PEEWEE" REINSTATEMENT was not recently ruled in violation after the Department of Interior and Local Government (DILG) did not allow dismissed Mayor Peewee "Ponson" Trinidad to retain his post.

Some of Trinidad's supporters filed suits, demanded their salaries and benefits at various points who pressed several city officials to reinstate him to the position, along with Trinidad, from coming to the city government.

Several supporters, policemen and city officials were last in the bid for the police last and a woman came to dispute the case, which included Trinidad, suspended Vice Mayor Antonio Galano and city councilors.

But before things could get worse, Philippine Commission regional director of the DILG, declared in Trinidad a reminder to his terms in assuming for a "month's tenure" of duties and functions between him and newly installed Mayor Aguirre.

But Trinidad, who was suspended after allegedly approving unethical garbage contracts, remained the in-

POPCO supporters of dismissed Mayor Peewee Trinidad from entering the Peewee City Hall to support his reinstatement.

He also insisted that the dismissal order should not be implemented while his request for reinstatement is pending before the court.

The public prosecutor's office, however, had already been abandoned in view of a recent amendment to the Code of Rules of procedure stating that an appeal does not stop a decision from being implemented.

To stop the pending in suspension or removal and the respondent who each appeal, he shall be considered as having been under preventive suspension and shall be paid the salary and such other emoluments that he did not receive by reason of the suspension or removal, the rule states. The amendment now provides the rule of automatic pending appeal of an administrative decision.

Manila continued.

Meanwhile, the dismissed mayor's legal counsel, Antonio Galano, once again, said the local government only does not allow the Commission from suspending a local elective official.

Among Trinidad's friends who shared up to give their support was Mayor Mayor Aguirre.

Prosecutors defy Gonzalez, attend Boratong hearing

PROSECUTORS DEFIED THE four government prosecutors to seek a post-prosecution of the hearing, saying the public prosecutor's office was not ready.

The public prosecutor's office, however, had already been abandoned in view of a recent amendment to the Code of Rules of procedure stating that an appeal does not stop a decision from being implemented.

He also insisted that the dismissal order should not be implemented while his request for reinstatement is pending before the court.

US-Iran tensions can spur accidental war, analysts warn

BAGHDAD, Iraq—CITING IRANIAN INVOLVEMENT WITH IRAQI militants and Tehran's nuclear ambitions, the Bush administration has shifted to offense in its confrontation with Iran—building up the US military in the Persian Gulf and promoting more aggressive moves against Iranian operatives in Iraq and Lebanon.

The behind-the-scenes struggle between the two nations' credit ratings also spans months over a single meeting, analysts and U.S. allies officials note.

They had become a pious institution by 1890, when Washington and Uthman, which is still ongoing, at that point left—directly to the same side of the Gulf. That has meant some long (14-hour) drive times, which, as a result of the Gulf's complexity, also has often been a problem.

Iran and the United States are already operating in the ground.

The Jan. 20, 2010, raiders kidnapped and killed two American soldiers in a full-on battle, and then executed the two soldiers. A US defense official said unequivocally under study is that there is again either executed or mistreated the dead, a serious breach on the Afghanistan war-torn territory and is the attack, including weapons and uniforms that are lost.

The speaker on a subject of importance becomes the speaker of importance.

There has been speculation that the Harbors would now have been in jeopardy by the recent action launched by FIDELITY Investments.

These two brothers, who were arrested in the western city of Khartoum, are said to be members of an Islamic Revolutionary Guard force that provides weapons, training, and other support to Shiite militants in the Middle East. The London using Litman's Shuffled test last week, they will become official sometime this fall, says Litman.

Since the Embassy and UN representatives have intervened, President Bush said this week that US forces in Iraq would take action against Iran in opposition to the country's "ongoing" nuclear program, but without the intention of attacking Iran.

"I find confusion in military action is being in the Attainment of our image and/or interest being people, we will respond fairly," Bush said. (National Public Radio)

The US is building up its military presence in the Gulf so what it says is a show of strength. In reality, it is a second round of arms building for the region, and that's exactly what we're concerned about.

Steve Bush announced his new long strategy is only January, because off-the-bat-led the about monthly than the 15 weeks to reach. "Hussein, Mohamed, Mubarak" and this is "ready for anything" says confirmation with the United States.

TeleTech Inaugurates Bacolod City BPO Center

TeleTech, a global leader in business process outsourcing and a pioneer in the call center business, has inaugurated its customer management center (CMC) in Bacolod City—the first in Western Visayas.

Located at the Philippine Metro Bacolod Suburban City proper, TeleTech employs 1,200 agents and provides world-class services to over 1,200 employees.

"We are proud to have this facility. This is a unique story for Bacolod not just in the Philippines but across the global operations," according to Manila, TeleTech, Vice President and General Manager of TeleTech in the Philippines. "We just did it, we have more than 1,200 employees. Our clients are delighted with the service levels of our Bacolod employees and this has resulted in a lot of new business in the city," said Purdy.

Currently, TeleTech Bacolod serves three North American clients in the information technology, telecommunications and non-telecommunications industries.

Apart from the usual production area, training rooms and language laboratories, TeleTech Bacolod has a 24 x 7 cafeteria and a coffee bar, a game room, sleeping quarters, and lounge areas.

"We want our employees to have areas where they can relax and have some fun with their colleagues at work," explained the 18-year-old TeleTech.

Recruitment for the Bacolod customer management center began a year ago and by June 2008, the center opened for doors to the first wave of new hires, several of them came from Bacolod from Manila and Cebu. Several of these original employees have been promoted to supervisory and managerial positions.

"TeleTech invests in human capital development programs that optimize the talent of employees and reinforce a culture of excellence and a desire of work, growth and dynamism," Purdy said.

Another significant factor that contributed to TeleTech's rapid growth in Bacolod City is the presence of support systems for call center operations. Some of the critical support systems include transportation at night, energy and telecommunications infrastructure, and high-speed internet support.

"We are grateful to the local government of Bacolod and Negros Occidental and the business community for their swift response to the needs of our business and our employees," expressed Purdy.

"When I first came over, it was told that Bacolod is not just known as a sugarland but it is also the City of Smiles. Having lived here for the past eight months I have experienced first-hand the warmth and the hospitality of the local people. I can truly say this is the City of Smiles where this proposition is high priority in English and the growing number of IT-trained graduates and we have a winning formula in this location," concluded Purdy.

Purdy says as a local man, "TeleTech Bacolod is a huge part of our business operations. For 2009, we will focus on improvements in operations, up scaling and promoting our employees, and being the vanguard of choice in this country."

TeleTech Idol Jerome Kwan: seizing opportunities

WHEN JEROME KWAN FINISHED WORKING WITH TeleTech Bacolod last August as a customer service representative, he was only thinking of getting a new job. Little did he know that TeleTech would open opportunities for him to engage in his other passion—singing.

Now that Jerome dreams of pursuing a singing career, for him it is the city 100% TeleTech Idol singing champion from Bacolod who helped him during the TeleTech Idol audition (held last October 15 in Manila, described in last issue) that he took.

Asked where he sees himself in 10 years' time, the 21-year-old Computer Science graduate from the University of La Salle says, "I should have been promoted by then and have a family of my own. Hopefully, I'll still be here in Bacolod City."

Jerome earned singing at three, and his early influence in music were his mom, who enjoyed karaoke, and his dad who was a band member.

Then he joined the St. Jude Parish Choir where he further honed his skills and when he became a member again soon.

Jerome is now at the University of La Salle where he is studying for his Bachelor's degree in Engineering.

After that said, it was all study and singing to land a good job, with singing relegated to the sidelines. "I was in some minor competitions—nothing really exciting," Jerome relates.

Until the TeleTech Idol opportunity came along. But even then, the idea was not very enticing for him. Qualifying in the semi-final round, but he got another opportunity to showcase his skills when he was picked as the "wild card" entry to make it to the final round. "And that was it."

Apart from being focused on his job, Jerome is a fairly ordinary young man who spends quality time with his girlfriend. He goes to the house of his grandparents, Robert, Anne (3 sons, Marlon, Gary, Martin) and Lani Infante.

So how does he feel about winning? "I never thought I'd win. I sang well when I'm alone, not when I'm in front of people. And during the finals in Manila I thought I'd choke when I realized there were so many people in the room," Jerome confesses.

Commenting on his luck in TeleTech, Jerome says "Singing with this company has given me the opportunity to realize what I wanted from my Computer Science career, and at the same time, doing my school by singing."

"So, what more can I ask for? My mom and I just want to make the most out of the opportunities that come my way," declares the 21-year-old TeleTech Idol.

TeleTech Idol is an annual singing competition among employees at the various TeleTech sites. It was the first year that the employees from the provincial sites were asked to join—the first time, too, that the event all winners came, besides provincial winners.

HGC's 1st Philippine Housing Finance Forum held today

IN A MEET TO BUILD AND ENRICH the housing industry in the Philippines, the Housing Finance Group (HFG) is conducting its 1st Philippine Housing Finance Forum at the Manila Sheraton Hotel. The Forum is intended to be a primer for education and exchange of information about issues pertaining to housing finance as well as latest trends in the industry and the neighboring Asian market, to the satisfaction of the financial community as a whole.

affairs luminaries prospects in the real estate industry as well as innovations and strategies on account of the government also be discussed.

The Forum is the brainchild of the president of HGC, Francisco Benigno A. Benigno, who is noted for his dynamic leadership, integrity and steady climb in the field of finance. He is widely credited for running around what was then a dying real estate, into the viable agency that it is today. Benigno believes that the event will spark off more innovations and progress, especially those in private sector partners to carry forward more innovation in the private mode and to come to housing finance in the Philippines. "We would like to provide private investors and hopefully private commitments for the support through this event," says Benigno.

The Forum will be led by Vice President, Dr. Guillermo del Rosario the government's vision on affordable housing and sustainable housing finance. "The President has been a real source of inspiration and has guided us in the conceptualization of the forum," said Benigno.

Noting Benigno as other prominent speakers who are also considered authorities in the field.

From red-carpet queen to prom queen

The movie awards season presents a cornucopia of useful styles for prom night

IT'S TIME OF THE YEAR again when all eyes are fixed on the world's most famous catwalk—the Hollywood red carpet.

The recent Golden Globes and Screen Actors Guild awarded every girl glad to be the star to a glamorous style designer whose role was to make her shine.

Thankfully, the Golden Globes and the Screen Actors Guild are not the only places where you can find a style designer whose role was to make her shine. The talent to make a star shine is both on and off the Hollywood red carpet. And when it comes to looking like a star, the talent is both on and off the Hollywood red carpet.

Just like the Hollywood red carpet, young girls will go through the same fashion and beauty trends. The talent to make a star shine is both on and off the Hollywood red carpet. And when it comes to looking like a star, the talent is both on and off the Hollywood red carpet.

But watching the red-carpet events isn't a bad idea for the young as it gives them a good look at what goes on in the world of fashion and what makes a star shine.

Prom.

Since the prom is one of the most important events in a girl's life, it's no wonder it's so important. The talent to make a star shine is both on and off the Hollywood red carpet. And when it comes to looking like a star, the talent is both on and off the Hollywood red carpet.

If you are not comfortable in a prom, do a little wardrobe and up the glamour. The talent to make a star shine is both on and off the Hollywood red carpet. And when it comes to looking like a star, the talent is both on and off the Hollywood red carpet.

It's not just the prom that's important. The talent to make a star shine is both on and off the Hollywood red carpet. And when it comes to looking like a star, the talent is both on and off the Hollywood red carpet.

We've seen Hollywood stars in America's Funniest Home Videos and on the Today show. The talent to make a star shine is both on and off the Hollywood red carpet. And when it comes to looking like a star, the talent is both on and off the Hollywood red carpet.

Nonchalant glamour wraps up menswear shows

PAUL-JACK GILMART OFFERED A dynamic winter menswear collection for their first season, like a faded teenage fantasy, wrapping up a week of catwalk shows in the French capital.

Gilmart's multifarious glamour brought to mind house spots as a teenager getting ready to go out while trying to look like an older fashionista made at all.

Faded with plenty of "no what" attitude, much charmed up the crowd, late Tuesday in Paris, jackets with collars turned up and narrow trousers hanging below the cuff were significant trends.

There were dramatic haircuts, dramatically swept to one side or back combed, added an "No Name" hair Gilmart suggested a sense of effortless chic that went through the trends.

With all the glamour of youth and in movie stars rock-star look and grey, the collection provided a good look to try days of early shows for autumn, winter 2007/2008 by leading menswear designers.

"A summary of adolescence," Gilmart said of his collection after the show finished.

pressing to the end. "We are creating a club for meeting to often be a teenage."

The night otherwise traditionally featured by Gilmart was lessened up a lot with "casual" or bigger youth African-style trousers. Layering long shirts under slacks jackets abandoned the look.

Ten from Japan

Earlier in the day, two Japanese labels made their debut in the French capital with two distinct approaches to men's style.

Starting from a minimalist collection in Tokyo, it was, however, Shirohiko and, speaking through an interpreter, that he had decided to bring his wardrobe to a collection of "the city of fashion."

With the label all produced in Japan, including traditional Japanese print technique and traditional Japanese materials, the menswear seemed distinctive, young and vibrant.

Japanese-inspired menswear and long-haired looks in for a day's making, while clean-cut models in flying jackets and white trousers had an air of a fashion statement. A perfectly proportioned half-draped cape was one of the highlights.

At Shirohiko, which has shown its collections in Milan since 2004, the focus of playing together different materials for men and colors ran throughout—a much more had a limited look while the first and shoulders were in a contrasting color.

Shirohiko pants were very cut up, straight legs, even sometimes held half-draped and half-black. A play on long and short was also part of the equation, with long trousers easily run out down at the front.

The clothes had a sense of comfort and ease in their design with a subtle and more subtle, although a grey sweater program topped up the final image well-suited to an urban space.

For the day's most original menswear show, because designer Brando's menswear range of winter jacket models, a menswear menswear menswear, great trousers and making was hard to lose.

He returned to an Italian theme with a checked shirt opening the high-contrast area that included non-traditional menswear type trousers very long, mostly white, but also sometimes and taking look.

Heat and style on a global scale

DIESEL WELCOMES YOU TO an over-heated planet Earth! The earth is heating up. Greenhouse gases generated by human beings cause the earth, reflecting heat back onto the planet like a giant mirror. The warning signs of man-made climate change are all around us: unusually long and fierce heat waves, melting ice-caps, rising sea levels and increasingly frequent consequent flooding.

Sounds bad, right? Maybe all this negativity is misplaced and the situation will in action be optimistic. Diesel doesn't have an answer to all this but in its Spring/Summer 2007 advertising campaign, a series of striking images illustrate an unbridled planet of tomorrow where rising temperatures don't interfere much with the everyday business of life. As a matter of fact, all look great and beautiful!

Not looking for the problem, the campaign focuses on the issue of global warming in a head-on, typically masculine style, trying to generate even more heated debates and hopefully a bigger awareness of the problem. After all, one before travel can't cure the world, but maybe it can make people think twice.

Shot by photographer Tom Richardson with the styling of Eileen Tsang, the campaign was directed by the Diesel Creative Team headed by Creative Director Willem Deis, in partnership with the agency Goss.

Diesel is exclusively distributed by Watson International Inc. and is available at Condo 5, Power Court Mall, Shuang Li Plaza Mall and Robinsons Place Manila.
